

In 2017 businesses and organizations from all across Pennsylvania came together to support increased investment in Pennsylvania's Neighborhood Assistance Program (NAP). The tax credit is currently capped at $18 million, the same as when it was created in 1971.

The following organizations advocate raising the cap on the NAP tax credit to $36 million.

ACTION-Housing, Inc.
African American Chamber of Commerce of Western PA
Allegheny Conference on Community Development
Allegheny Land Trust
ArtsQuest
Bloomfield Development Corporation
Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation
CBRE
Chatham University
City of Washington Citywide Community Development Corporation
Community Action Committee of the Lehigh Valley, Inc.
Dollar Bank
Economic Development South
Fayette County Community Action Agency, Inc.
Fayette County Cultural Trust
Fragasso Financial Advisors, Inc.
Greater Connellsville Chamber of Commerce
Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce
Habitat for Humanity of Greater Pittsburgh
Hilltop Alliance (Have not received form yet)
Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania
KeyBank
Kisiel & Associates, PC
Lawrenceville Corporation
Massaro Construction Group, Inc.
McKees Rocks Community Development Corporation
Mon Valley Alliance
Montgomery & Rust Inc.
NeighborWorks Western Pennsylvania
Oakland Planning and Development Corporation
Pennsylvania Economy League of Greater Pittsburgh
Pittsburgh Airport Area Chamber of Commerce
Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment Group
PNC Bank
Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh
Regional Housing Legal Services
Seton Hill University
Sharpsburg Neighborhood Organization
Somerset Trust Company
Tabor Community Services
The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Philadelphia
The Gateway Engineers, Inc.
TriState Capital Bank
UPMC
Uptown Partners of Pittsburgh
Waynesburg Area Chamber of Commerce
Westmoreland Community Action
Westmoreland County Chamber of Commerce
Wilksburg Community Development Corporation